

TAMPERTECH Teaches:

The Importance of Application

Tampertech manufacture a wide range of tamper evident tapes and labels wich have a huge array of uses

This wide variety of products and applications is why it is so important that we know where you intend on using our products:

- Outside or inside?
- What temperature range will it be exposed to?
- What material will it be adhered to?
- What is the surface condition of that material like?

These are important questions as it allows us to recommend the right product tailored to fit your exact needs.

If you have any other questions about our wide range of custom options and how we can recommend a product to best suit your needs then do get in touch!
