

FOOD AND DRINK BRAND YOUR SECURITY

TAMPER EVIDENT • TAPES & LABELS

Applications

Tamper evident labels give an additional layer of protection, to your products and therefore your brand by providing physical evidence of opening by revealing a hidden message.

These labels can be used to carry a corporate message, excite your consumer with individual experiences with QR codes, protect against counterfeiting and prove product authenticity to your customers. You can choose the options to build your security label to protect your brand

A tamper evident label or tape can be applied across the closure of a carton, lid of a bottle, cup lid, plastic bag, paper bag and cardboard boxes too.

Benefits

An inexpensive solution to secure your products against theft and tampering. Layered brand security is now available for you; providing strong visual proof of tampering if the seal is broken, leaving a clearly visible warning message.

This provides you instantly with a new layer of security adding to your food and drink protection for the Direct to Consumer, Takeaway Delivery and End to End Supply Chain industries.
